The last meeting on the rules is in March. COSA and OSBA requested a meeting with the Alliance through Jeremy Wells. Two concerns raised by the organizations were belief that the rules are outside the scope of regular operating hours, and asked for data related to need for sharing information after hospital discharge. David proposes inviting representatives to the February executive

			committee meeting to discuss the Alliance position on the rules and learn more about the organizations’ perspective. Action: Jerry follow up with contact at MESD regarding meeting with OSBA/COSA and report back to on status. By Jan 17, if still needed, Annette contact OSBA/COSA to invite them to exec meeting in February. Kimberlee – notes that she continues to be concerned regarding lack of trust that students have for schools as it relates to sharing mental health information. She has data from her region regarding this. Laura Rose wonders about readiness assessment. Action: Schools Committee take a look at readiness assessment.
8:55	OHA Update	Jill Baker/Meghan Crane	Jill: New Youth Suicide Prevention person will soon be on board with OHA. Interviews for the adult suicide prevention are moving forward. Jill is getting training around analyzing bills. Jill proposed a new member, Eric Martz. He is a high school student who established a suicide prevention organization. John moved to approve, Ryan seconded. Approved unanimously. Action: Exec committee asks Jill to request that Pat Allen appoints Eric Martz to the Alliance. Meghan: Working with AOCMHP and the coalition of Public Health Departments on a process for RFP for the Garret Lee Smith grants. Anticipate the RFP coming out this month. Either Public Health or Local Mental Health Authority can apply. Three to five awards of a total $350,000 statewide will be issued.
9:10	Propose recommending OHA look at whether 3090 implemented	David Westbrook	HB3090 rules went into effect a year ago. David proposes: OHA do an in-depth one-year analysis of effectiveness of implementation of HB3090 and compliance with rules. Jerry asks about how rules are enforced. Jills understanding of the rule is that it is complaint driven from a patient/client. She is aware that one

			complaint is currently under investigation. May need to raise the awareness of counties and other organizations about the rule and process for complaints if not followed. The UO team has done a scan of all the hospitals. Only 3 of 60 hospitals had the procedures required in 3090 posted on website, to do lethal means assessment, caring contacts, follow up within 7 days. Question: Why is this only a patient complaint driven process? Is there a different mechanism for enforcement. Meghan notes that an internal group at OHA has met once to discuss HB3090. John—notes very disappointed in the methodology for the first report, with less than a 30% return. John wonders if UO team can provide support with methodology. Jill notes that the Hospital Association also was concerned that they weren't engaged and consulted in developing the survey. Laura Rose also wonders if there is any difference between publicly funded hospitals and others. Action: John Seeley and Jerry Gabay will take the lead in developing a letter from the Alliance to OHA with questions, recommendations and concerns regarding 3090 implementation and compliance with rules. Include in letter a time frame for action. A draft of the letter will be ready for the executive committee before the February meeting. Galli suggests also engaging Julie Magers in the letter writing process. Meghan notes in case of a complaint it is handled through Health Policy and Analytics. Meghan will send contact list of key OHA staff/depts to the exec committee.
